CREDIT UNION

Dorothy J. Sullivan Scholarship Program- 2009

You must be a Dutch Point Credit Union member in good standing in order for application to qualify.

The Dorothy J. Sullivan Scholarship was initiated to honor and recognize the vast accomplishments made by Dorothy Sullivan during her 43-year career at Dutch Point. Her support of higher education and opportunities led to the creation of this scholarship and continues the credit union's commitment to help deserving students with their education and future.

Please submit the following:

A completed application and a typed double-spaced essay of not more than 300 words. Do not provide copies of awards, letters of reference, or other corresponding data that relates to your accomplishments. Applications will be judged based on the information provided on page 2 and their essay. Proofread carefully - spelling, grammatical and typographical errors factor into the judging process. All entries become the property of Dutch Point Credit Union. Essays may be published.

Deadline:

A complete application package must be postmarked no later than March 31, 2009. The entire package including application form and the essay must be received together. Incomplete packages will be considered void and will not be judged.
